7:30PM- 8:00PM Bill Rosendahl

Since taking office in July of 2005, representing the 11th City Council district, Mr. Rosendahl has focussed on: stopping the expansion of LAX, promoting mass transit, standing up for tenant's rights, and giving neighborhoods a greater voice in city decisions. Bill was an award winning television broadcaster producing 3,000 programs over 16 years dealing with public affairs on the most complex and controversial political issues. Bill worked as a White house appointee to the State department and a psychiatric social worker while serving in the U.S. Army. He graduated with a Masters of Social Work from the University of Pittsburgh. He is also a world traveler who has visited 52 countries. Bill will discuss current issues facing the Los Angeles City Council.

8:00PM - 8:30PM Kit Cole

Kit Cole is Director of External Affairs for the Waste Management Corporation. She will make a presentation on the planned Sun Valley Recycling Park. This facility is expected to open about the time the landfill, operated by Waste Management, will close in April of next year.

Questions from the audience will follow each speaker's remarks. The public and press are invited to the meeting.

Valley VOTE Mission Statement
