7:40PM - 8:10PM Caprice Young

Caprice Young is the President of the California Charter Schools Association, California's charter school membership and support association, which works to increase student achievement by strengthening and expanding public charter schools throughout California. Caprice served from 1999-2003 as a member and President of the Los Angeles Unified School District Board of Education. She also worked as Assistant Deputy Mayor for the city of L.A. She serves on numerous boards, including the Governor's Advisory Committee on Education Excellence, She earned her Bachelors degree from Yale University and an MPA from USC. She lives in the San Fernando Valley with her husband and three young daughters. Caprice will bring us up to date on what has been happening with Charter Schools in the city and the state since her last visit.

Questions from the audience will follow each speaker's remarks. The public and press are invited to the meeting.

There will not be a meeting of Valley VOTE in December.
The next meeting will be on Monday, January 15,2007.

Valley VOTE Mission Statement
