Assemblymember Michael Feuer

Michael Feuer is a member of the California State Assembly representing the 42 District for three 2 year terms. Due to California's term limits law, his third term is his final term in the Assembly. In September 2011 he filed papers to initiate a second campaign for Los Angeles City Attorney, the same position he sought in 2001. The primary is March 5, 2013, with a general election, if necessary.

Feuer served as a member of the Los City Council from 1995 to 2001, representing the 5th Council District. In 2001 he was a candidate for Los Angeles City Attorney. He placed first of four candidates in the primary for the nonpartisan office, but narrowly lost the runoff to Rocky Delgadillo. Prior to seeking office, Feuer served as executive director of Bet Tzedek Legal Services and was a lawyer in private practice.

In September 2011 he filed papers to initiate a second campaign for Los Angeles City Attorney, the same position he sought in 2001. The primary is March 5, 2013, with a general election, if necessary, on May 21, 2013.

Feuer holds both a bachelor's degree and a law degree from Harvard University and is married with two children: Danielle, 18, who is in her freshman year at Yale University, and Aaron, who is 21, and is in his junior year at Yale.
