Debate between leading candidates for L.A. County Supervisor:
Sheila Kuehl and Bobby Shriver

Sheila Kuehl- Website: www.kuehlforsupervisor.com - Kuehl was the first openly gay or lesbian person elected to the California Legislature, serving a combined 14years in the state Senate and Assembly before being termed out in 2008. She authored state laws that established paid family leave, and prohibited discrimination on the basis of gender and disability in the workplace, and sexual orientation in education. In her youth, she was a child actress who portrayed Zelda Gilroy in "The Many Lives of Dobie Gillis."

Bobby Shriver- Website: www.bobbyshriver.com - Shriver served eight years on the Santa Monica City Council, paying particular attention to cleaning up Santa Monica Bay and housing homeless veterans. A graduate of Yale Law School, he co-founded several nonprofit organizations to help the people of Africa. He also worked as a journalist, venture capitalist, and movie producer. He is a nephew of President John F. Kennedy and brother of Maria Shriver.

Each Candidate will be provided equal time to present their arguments and answer questions as time permits.

We would like to thank the candidates for taking the time out of their busy schedules to attend our meeting.
